

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK CELEBRATIONS-2025

IIST Library is organising the following events, as part of the National Library Week Celebrations-2025.

"A Journey Through Words, Worlds, and Wisdom" - Book Exhibition

IIST Library organises a book exhibition to showcase English Literature Books. Step into a collection of biographies, short stories, poetry etc. A world woven with words, imagination, and timeless stories.

November 14-20

Venue: Library

"The Joy of Sharing Books" - Read and Share Programme

Each book you share finds a new reader and a new meaning. A shared book becomes a bridge between minds and hearts, connecting people across time and place. Let us keep the circle of reading alive. Bring a good read to share and take your next favourite book.

November 14-20

Venue: Library

"The Art of Beautiful Writing" - Workshop on Calligraphy

An opportunity to learn to express yourself artistically through beautiful lettering and design.

November 18, 10 am

Venue: Library

Workshop on "Knovel and Engineering Village AI for Applied Engineering & Space Science"

The session will focus on leveraging the advanced capabilities of the Knovel platform and the transformative Engineering Village AI tool for practical, problem solving research.

November 19, 2.30 pm

Venue: Mini Conference Hall, Library

"Design. Create. Innovate."- Training on Inkscape

Inkscape is a free graphic and design editor that can be used for personal and professional purposes. The training will focus on creating posters for signages and social media content.

November 20, 10am

Venue: CAD Lab- L204, Aerospace Block

"Cut, Fold, and Glue"- Workshop on Paper Craft

An opportunity to learn paper art modelling.

November 21, 10 am

Venue: Library

